with infinite love and deep gratitude
Acknowledgment

I wish to thank all those who helped me throughout the writing of the thesis. I cannot find enough words to express my deep gratitude to my thesis advisor Dr. Bahgat Korany who helped me choose the topic of this work and has throughout given me generously much of his valuable time and profound knowledge not only during the preparation and writing of this thesis but also throughout my years as undergraduate and graduate student at the American University in Cairo. My two readers Dr. Iman Hamdy and Dr. Kareem Kamel are especially thanked for their words of encouragement and advice. I also greatly appreciate the tremendous assistance and support of my manager Ambassador Fawzi Gohar.

I am very grateful to my father, grandmother, Pretty, Ahmed, Azza, Shabir and Enany for their continuous love, encouragement and moral support, and especially Nehad and Sarah, who have always been there for me and willing to help in any way they could. Finally, I would like to deeply thank my friends: Ahmed Raafat, Nahla Osman, Maged Nashat, Amr Fahmy and Karim Bayoumy. Their support, kindness and confidence in me were a great asset.
