The Ramses Wissa Wassef Collection at the American University in Cairo
Preserving and Digitizing a Pioneering Architect's Legacy

Conchita Anorve-Tschirgi, Curator of the Regional Architecture Collections
Carolyn Runyon, Digital Collections Archivist
Rare Books and Special Collections Library
Rare Books and Special Collections Library
Acquiring the Collection
Surveying the Collection
Organizing the the Collection
Protecting the Collection
Promoting the Collection
Digitizing the Collection

Rare Books and Special Collections Digital Library

Ramses Wissa Wassef Architectural Drawings

About the collection

The Ramses Wissa Wassef Architectural Drawings digital collection documents the career of one of Egypt's architects. The collection is part of an ongoing effort to digitize and describe more than 800 architectural plans over 60 years, schools, churches, banks, and apartment buildings designed by Wissa Wassef between 1933
Thank You!

Conchita Anorve-Tschirgi
Curator Regional Architecture Collections
&
Carolyn Runyon
Digital Collections Archivist

American University in Cairo
Rare Books and Special Collections Library

Visit us at http://library.aucegypt.edu/rbscl/.