

Wrote and organized by Heba Galal, Teaching and Research Assistant

Hosting speakers from League of Arab States and Ministry of Foreign Affairs to introduce graduate students to Conventional weapons

As part of class activities “Armament, Arms Control, and Disarmament” (PPAD 5153), Ambassador Professor Sameh Aboul Enein, adjunct professor for international security & disarmament at the school of Global Affairs and Public Policy hosted Ambassador Karim Sherif ( ambassador of Egypt to Togo ) and Counselor Fadi Achaia (director of disarmament at the League of Arab States )to introduce the class to “conventional weapons Proliferation in the Middle East & Africa as well as to the Arms Trade Treaty.” The multinational class composition had a lively interactive session with the speakers who shared their experiences in the field (Thursday, Nov 13th, 2014).

