Prof Sameh Aboul Enein represents Egypt in two major international events on cyber security

Ambassador Professor Sameh Aboul Enein, Adjunct Professor for International Security, and Disarmament at American University in Cairo, represents Egypt in the United Nations Group of Governmental Experts (GGE) on cyber security in New York as well as Global Conference on Cyber Space in Hague, Holland. The meetings were attended by UN member states, international organizations, major IT industries & companies, and security & intelligence agencies (April 2015).